Dear Mr. Durigon,

On behalf of Secretary-General Kofi Annan, I wish to acknowledge receipt of your letter of 15 September 2004 and attachments, which were recently referred to this office for reply.

Thank you for your information regarding Play Artu, which has been read and noted. I must advise you that any proposal to be considered by the Members of the United Nations must first be presented by an official representative of a Member State, duly inscribed on the Organization's agenda and subsequently voted by the Membership. For this reason, you may wish to redirect your proposal to your country's representative office before the United Nations: Permanent Mission of Italy to the United Nations, Two United Nations Plaza, 24th Floor, New York, NY 10017 U.S.A. E-mail: italy@un.int I hope this information is helpful to you.

Thank you again for your interest in the United Nations, and for taking the time to write to us.

Yours sincerely,
